WORLD BOOK DAY

The children had a fantastic Thursday last week celebrating World Book Day. The vast range of costumes looked amazing and all children got a chance to parade and perform around the hall. At the end of the day the teachers swapped classes to read a story. Our staff also created a bedtime story which has been posted on the school website and Facebook page. 792 views, not quite viral yet! If you get a chance have a look over the weekend.

Here we have some pictures from the day.
